WINNERS IN DAILY'S BIG AUTO CONTEST TO BE ANNOUNCED IN TUESDAY PAPER

Announcement Cannot be Made Until Tomorrow Enable

MANY ANXIOUS INQUIRIES ARE RECEIVED TODAY

Intense Interest in Outcome of Most Successful Campaign Manifested

The Big Count is on!

Due to the vast amount of clerical work necessary to tabulate the subscriptions and credits cast throughout the entire campaign, it will be impossible to announce the winners of the big prizes before tomorrow. There has been no checking or totalling of any of the records from the beginning of the campaign until the last subscription was deposited in the ballot box Saturday night, therefore, the task at hand is a rather onerous one and entails a great amount of clerical work.

Millions of credits were cast by the active members and the results obtained are far beyond the most sanguine expectations, which, in turn, calls for the greatest care in checking the credits so that no error can possibly occur. Subscriptions turned in during the different stages of the race carried different credits and these subscriptions in turn are valued according to their size. Then there are thousands of coupons which have been clipped from the paper by the boosters and the good friends of the contestants, to be accounted for. Quite a number of the members and their friends have called at the Campaign Headquarters and the entire morning has been devoted to answering anxious inquiries both in person and by phone by folks interested in the probable winners. Great interest was created at the very outset by The Daily's announcement that valuable touring cars would be given in exchange for their friends' efforts in helping increase its circulation. The value of the prizes at stake and the prominence of the active contestants is the cause of the great interest being manifested in the outcome. To say that it was a huge success, in putting it mildly and all that can be said at the present time is that the judges and clerks delegated to handle the counting end of the campaign are at it "hammer and tongs" and will more than likely finish their work in time to give the full announcement in tomorrow's issue.

Watch for the announcement. We hope you win one of the best prizes and, in the meantime—remember, WE'RE COUNTING AS FAST AS WE CAN!

After the Judges make their announcement, the complete records of the Campaign will be open to the inspection of the active contestants and their friends, and all are invited to call and look over them.

TWO ARRESTS IN AXE MURDER CASE

BLOODHOUNDS FAIL TO CONTIN-UE TRAIL AFTER MAKING
MANY ATTEMPTS

(International News Service)
MERIDIAN, Miss., Jan. 17.—Nel-ther slayer of nor motive for the brutal murder of Moody Price, former United States commissioner, early yesterday morning, are yet known by the authorities of Meridian or Lauderdale county, all of whom are still at work on the case.

The bloodhounds brought here yesterday afternoon were kept going until an early hour this morning before their owner gave up the chase, expressing a belief that the murderers either caught a train or stole a vehicle of some kind and made their getaway.

Two arrests were made late yesterday at York, Ala., about 30 miles from here.

The men got off a freight train and acted in a suspicious manner, it is said. They are being held in York jail for further investigation.

'VICTORY MEETING' CELEBRATES DEATH OF J. BARLEYCORN

Central Methodist Church is Crowded on Sunday Night to Observe Day of Emancipation From Liquor Traffic

"No wonder such large numbers have come out tonight, for we are to celebrate as great an Independence Day as was that of 1776," said Mrs.
C. W. Black, chairman, when from the chancel of the Central Methodist church last evening she welcomed the mammoth audience which faced her.
From the furthest reaches of the Sunday school room, which had been thrown into the main church auditorium, to the far south side of the church proper, every seat was taken and the chairs that had been placed in the aisles were filled. The congregations of Westminster Presbyterian, Central Baptist and Central Methodist, headed by their pastors and their choirs, all turned out, and as of one accord this was what swelled the audience to record-breaking proportions.

The hymns, prayers, addresses, readings and victory songs led by the joint choir added to the enthusiasm of the great audience, were distinctly re-mindful of the open-air meetings held in the churches when prohibition sentiment was reaching the boiling point about a dozen years ago.

Mrs. Black speaks
Mrs. Black, who is the local chairman of the W. C. T. U., occupied an inconspicuous seat at the chancel rail as the crowd began to file in, and after the last of the joint choir were in their seats Mrs. Black arose, made a short, stirring address, and asked that No.
216 in the hymn book be sung by the entire audience, which selection proved to be "America." The national hymn was sung with will and enthusiasm.
Rev. Sturdivant, pastor of the Central Methodist church, then led in prayer.
The learned doctor's effort was an eloquent invocation full of earnest pleas to God for a wide-awake church membership against the attempts of the outlawed whiskey traffic to gain another foothold.

Fired by Eloquence Rev. L. F. Goodwin's address was in a class by itself. It was a prose poem, but full of wise advice and shrewd insight. Dr. Goodwin made a center shot at the Albany-Decatur Daily, and when the big projectile was opened up, it proved to be full of "flowers and bouquets" for the local daily. "I want to say right here," declared the preacher, "that I am delighted with the attitude of our paper. The men who are at the head of that paper are our friends. They want to see solid, substantial growth in clean, moral sentiment in our cities.

"We are accustomed to look in the large metropolitan press for editorial opinion, but we do not need to do that.
I noticed an editorial in our paper which brought out the shrewd, understanding methods the liquor people are employing. I wish I could read it now.
I think that we are to be congratulated on the high moral ground taken by The Daily."

Dr. Goodwin opened with saying that he was glad he was not "so little" as to think only of the good of Presbyterians, and that a meeting such as the one in progress meant great things for the whole community. In rounded sentences, full of eloquent and fervent spirit, Dr. Goodwin said that the 16th of January deserved to rank with Independence Day, with Armistice Day, and with the birthday of the father of American liberty.

"But," declared the speaker, "I put it ahead of any of those days. It stands only second to the day we celebrate as the birthday of our Saviour! It means a milestone; it means agitation and agitation means education—and education against all evil is what we need!" The speaker was especially happy in his illustrations as to the power of knowledge, which he said was "light."

"A burnt child dreads the fire." All mankind has been burned and humiliated by the whiskey business." The speaker said that the home was our dearest shrine, that the children were our dearest asset and that as the whisky business was the worst enemy to these, it should be utterly destroyed.
He said that it also debauched manhood and womanhood and should therefore be destroyed.

Made Him Sick
It makes me sick," declared Dr.
Goodwin, "to hear this talk about a legalized liquor business being better than the present illegal status of the traffic." It was declared that the legal saloon in its day had more bootleggers than were now plying their trade. "As long as the saloon had Uncle Sam's backing it was in the open and insolent; now it must operate under cover and as a disgraceful outlaw." A number of amusing stories were related of how "home brewers" said they had to "distill water for their sick wives" and of church members who had "barrels of it for communion purposes."

Dr. Wilks speaker
Following a beautiful duet by Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Pickens, Dr. W. P.
Wilks, pastor of the Central Baptist church, made one of his characteris-tically able addresses. Although the previous speaker had perforce touched upon the main issues, Dr. Wilks made no complaints that the subject had been preempted, but proceeded in a straight-forward manner to tell his hearers that as the 1776 declaration did not win American independence, neither had the 18th amendment made nation-wide prohibition.

Dr. Wilks declared that as much of the battle was in front as was behind the soldiers of freedom. He touched upon many of the same warnings as had been given by Dr. Sturdivant and by Dr. Goodwin. The "political prohibitionists" were declared to be the men on whom the true friends of the cause must keep the eyes of "eternal vigilance."

This "sorry class" of citizens were flayed without mercy by the pastor.
He said as an evidence that whiskey was still on hand, that recently seven local boys around 10 years of age got beastly drunk off of whiskey found in a neighboring barn. "You have only to lift up your eyes, or rather your nose, to know that whiskey is here," said Dr. Wilks. As had the previous speakers stated, Dr. Wilks said that Christian prayer was the great agency for destroying whiskey eternally.
Three stories were told by Dr. Wilks to illustrate the danger of any let-up in the fight against John Barleycorn.

First, that of the Scotchman who ruled against all whiskey "except at sheep washing time," and it was related how one old Scot got to washing his sheep seven times a week, so as to get drunk and yet keep his oath. The second, as of the drummer boy who, when he got long pants, told the Lord that He need give Himself no concern "about mother any longer, as I can look after her." The third was about the falling man who was caught amid agonizing prayers, as he slid from the roof, by a chance nail and who thereupon told the Lord: "Never mind now, a nail has caught me." The speaker said not to trust to any power but God's power and to be sure to use that.

Climax Reached
As "The Fight Is On, O Christian Soldiers" had been the rallying hymn for the prohibition forces 12 years ago, so last night "Victory Forever More" was the rallying song. The audience had been brought almost to the point of cheering for the first time during the evening by a temperance reading by Miss Ethel Powell, expression teacher at the Gordon school. When Mrs. H. O. Troupe, the organist, struck the chord of this victory hymn and at a signal the large choir arose as one person and led, the audience joining in with enthusiasm. The audience was soon sung into the seventh heaven of prohibition. But that did not entirely satisfy Mrs. Black. She delivered the master stroke of the evening against Barleycorn by demanding the "ayes and noes" on a big collection to be used by the local W. C. T. U. "as it saw fit." The "ayes" won, and a regular Anti-Saloon League collection jing-led into the hats of the young men.
After "Old Hundred" was sung and the benediction was had, the great crowd filed out of the church.

INFANT DIES

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Moore, died last night at the home of her parents, following an attack of pneumonia. The body was shipped to Fayetteville, Tenn., for interment.

GENERAL COXEY LEADS PROTEST 'ALONE' IN 1920

(International News Service)
MARION, O., Jan. 17.—Twenty-five years ago General Jacob S.
Coxey led an army of protest on foot from Massillon, O., to Washington. Today he came alone to Marion by rail to present a protest against the continuation upon the statutes of the 18th amendment to the constitution.

General Coxey declared to Senator Harding his belief that two-thirds of the citizens of the United States are willfully violating the Volstead act. He presented a proposal whereby on petition of 1,000, 000 citizens, any federal law would be submitted to a referendum of the people at an election at which the question involved would be at issue.

Former Governor Lawden of Illinois conferred with Senator Harding today as did Will H. Hays, Republican chairman, before the President-elect's departure for the South.

LIFE'S DUTIES ARE DIVIDED IN THREE CLASSES BY PASTOR

Rev. T. G. Mundy, the rector, occupied the pulpit of St. John's Episcopal church yesterday morning, preaching from the text: "And from the residue thereof he maketh a God"—Isa.
49-17.

The apparent purpose of the speaker's discourse was to lay special stress on our duties to God, and to encourage his hearers to think less of self and selfish desires.

Rev. Mundy said that the idol wor-shipper of the text appropriated only the "leavings" to his idol. He said that if such a worshipper went out and cut down a tree, for instance, the wood thereof was used, first of all, for himself, but if there was a residue, it was made into an idol.

"Life's duties are divided into three classes—duties to God, duties to our fellow men, and duties to ourselves," said the rector. "Neither one of these claims should be neglected. But in life there are so many men and women who do not recognize this obligation.
Many perform one or more duties, but neglect the others. Usually the over-emphasis is placed on our duty to self.

"Our desires are to be gratified first even if we are compelled to neglect our obligations to God.
"Two duties seem to be recognized by many—duty to self, because it is pleasant, and duty to neighbors because society demands it. And if such ever do render their duty to God, it comes as an after thought.

"Take first the man who is respected, and whose worldly judgment is good, but he does not take religion seriously. If such a man becomes very sick and he sees that he is about to land on other shores, he is willing then to give the 'residue' of his life to God.
"Sometimes we find a woman who is a leader, who amuses her friends, has her card parties and other social functions—then after such a one has lost health, when she cannot use her powers for her own pleasure alone, she is willing to give her life over to God.

"Take a young man who, like the prodigal, ruins his usefulness and comes to God and says: 'Here, God, I give you my 'leavings,' the residue of my life to do the best you can with.'
So much for self—so little for God!" In speaking of the importance of liberal giving to the needy, Rev. Mundy said that the Bible made it plain that all should give as God had prospered them. It was pointed out that financial obligations to men were met more promptly and more cheerfully by many than such obligations to God.

"When a man is hard pressed financially, usually it is God's cause that suffers first. You have got to pay your insurance and taxes; these things must be provided in good or bad years, but it is different when it comes to God—we are not forced to give Him anything, so His cause suffers. And if there is any debt that a man says he cannot meet, it is usually that which he owes to God."

Rev. Mundy's concluding words were: "Let us think less of self and our own desires and more of God and His just claims. And if we have several obligations to meet, let us not always put our obligation to God last."

EMERGENCY TARIFF BILL'S SUPPORTERS WITHIN FOUR VOTES OF NEEDED NUMBER

Final Victory for Farm Measure Seen by Friends in the Senate

PREDICTED ACT WILL PASS THIS SESSION

Many Democratic Senators Are Lining Up With Republican Majority

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Supporters of the emergency tariff bill in the Senate reported today they are within three or four votes of the two-thirds necessary to invoke closure which, under the Senate rules, would restrict debate on the measure and cut off the filibuster planned by its opponents.

They also hoped to be able to command the two-thirds vote necessary to override President Wilson's veto of the bill, if it reaches him, they stated.

They predicted the bill would be passed before the end of the present session, despite the amendments with which it has been loaded down and the dilatatory tactics of the opposition. The bill was reported to the Senate today by Senator Penrose, Republican, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Senate finance committee, who favors most of the changes which were made in it by a majority of the committee. It is estimated from 8 to 11 Democratic senators, due to the pressure from the agricultural interests of their states, which are strongly supporting the tariff bill, are prepared to vote with the Republicans for the measure.

Protection for wool, wheat, peanuts, sugar, rice, frozen meats—products of the East, South and West—embodied in the bill as reported from the committee, is likely to increase the number of its supporters, Republican supporters believed.

"Y" WILL LAUNCH THRIFTY PROGRAM EARLY IN FEBRUARY

Plans have been under consideration for some time for an intensive Thrift Week campaign, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., leading up to the Thrift Week, which will be observed January 17-23, inclusive, thruout the nation.

Secretary Nollan announced today that the plans have not matured in time to join the campaign this week, so Thrift Week will be observed by the "Y" sometime in February.

"It is my aim to enlist social, club and other organizations in the city in order that the greatest presentation of thrift will be experienced in this community."

"We hope in this program to show that thrift means not only saving money, but also spending it—wisely.
This program proposes to educate all in economics, comprising earnings, keeping the money in a bank, having a budget of personal and family expenditures, carrying life insurance, owning a home, making a will, paying bills promptly and in sharing with others, or benevolence."

The basic principles will be expressed in the Ten Point Financial Credo, of the Ten Commandments of Thrift:

1. Work and earn.
 2. Make a budget.
 3. Record expenditures.
 4. Have a bank account.
 5. Carry life insurance.
 6. Own your own home.
 7. Make a will.
 8. Invest in reliable securities.
 9. Pay your bills promptly.
 10. Share with others.
- More information will be given shortly.

Fair and Colder Late This Week

The following weekly weather forecast was issued by the government today: "For the South Atlantic and East Gulf states: Local rains will occur the first part of the week, followed by generally fair and colder thereafter."

FORMER EDITOR COUNTY PAPER VISITOR HERE

J. A. Rountree, founder of the old Hartselle Enquirer, now the Hartselle Enterprise, was a visitor here today. Since he entered the newspaper game in Morgan County at the age of 19 years, Mr. Rountree has had wide experience and today is director general of the United States Good Roads Association.

He moved from Morgan County to Birmingham, where he was financially interested in The Birmingham Age Herald, now one of the South's leading morning newspapers.

"I just came up to see my old friends," Mr. Rountree stated.
He declared his visit had no official connection. He will leave soon for Chicago to attend the convention of the American Road builders.

VISITING MINISTER PREACHES TWICE AT 1ST PRESBYTERIAN

Dr. John D. Wallace, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Decatur Sunday, to large and appreciative audiences. The morning sermon was preceded by an inspiring song service, one number of which was a solo by John Mitchell—"The Ninety and Nine."

In opening his morning discourse, Dr. Wallace said many scripture texts derived their value to different individuals, because of some circumstances or experience in their lives.
He said that the 23rd Psalm was very precious to many, as were parts of the 14th Chapter of John to others.
For his own part the preacher said that the words of the Master "Lo, I am with you always, even until the end of the age," were the most precious words in the Bible, and that he would use them as a text.

Calling attention to the value people always placed on last sayings, he said that the text words were nearly the last words uttered by the Savior while on the earth.

"The Savior never disappoints those who will pay the price of meeting Him. A great many claim—but reasonable people know it is not true, that they have not the time to fami-lize themselves with the life and purposes of Christ. They say that they do not have time to read the Bible."

Takes Optimistic View

"I believe that during my life time, if I reach the allotted three score and ten, that the Gospel will be adequately preached in every part of the world.
Whether the people will be evangeli-zed depends on whether or not they will accept the message. I believe that His church will be finally victorious, and that Christ will be acknowledged everywhere as Lord and King."

The speaker said that with all the temptation of this age, a means of escape was prepared, that God was faithful and just to forgive all who came unto him, and that Christ was anxious to make His promise good to be with us to the end.

It was declared that professors of Christianity should not frequent places or keep company in such in-such a way as to grieve their Savior, who wished to be with them in full fellowship all the time. It was declared that "the guidance, control and inspiration of the Holy Spirit," was available at all times.

Dr. Wallace had spoken in the Sunday School of this church, previous to the eleven o'clock service, to the Bible class, using the International Sunday School lesson on the "Rich Young Ruler" as the basis of his remarks. The Bible class will be addressed by Dr. L. F. Goodwin, Pastor of the Westminster church of Albany next Sunday morning according to announcement by its president, Dr. F. B. Rustin.

Rehearsal Tonight For Kiwanis Show

The first rehearsal will be held at the Y. M. C. A. at 7:15 o'clock tonight for the Kiwanis minstrel. The attendance of all members of the cast was urged.

PROBE OF LYNCHING PASSES INTO HANDS CIVIL AUTHORITIES WITH TEN IN JAIL

Members of Company Taken Into Custody Following West's Confession

PREPARATIONS MADE FOR SPECIAL COURT

Horace Wilkinson, Special Solicitor, is in Jasper for Conferences

(International News Service)
BIRMINGHAM, Jan. 17.—The investigation into the lynching of William Baird, charged with the murder of Private James Morris, Company M, Alabama National Guard, passed into the hands of the civil authorities Monday and the task of the military authorities was completed.

With ten members of Company M and one civilian held in the Jefferson county jail, charged with complicity in the lynching of Baird, the above was the statement issued from headquarters of General Steiner, commanding state troops on duty in the strike zone, early Monday morning.

Special Solicitor Horace C. Wilkinson, appointed by Governor Kilby, left for Walker county this morning to assist Coroner Legg in his investigation of the Jasper tragedy. Judge Wilkinson spent Sunday in questioning members of Company M, following the confession of Leslie West, the taxicab driver, who drove one of the cars said to have contained members of the mob from Townley to Jasper early Thursday morning.

West's confession covered sixteen pages of typewritten copy and was signed by West in the presence of Judge Wilkinson Sunday. The arrest of the National Guardsmen implicated followed. Those held in jail here are:

Leslie West, taxicab driver; Sergeant Cox, Glenn L. Stephens, Robert J. Lancaster, Corporal Joseph W. Key, Manly R. Sexton, E. W. Speed Jr., William E. Hanby, James Franklin, Roy Patton and Bugler C. E. Richardson.

SPECIAL GRAND JURY

JASPER, Ala., Jan. 17.—A special term of the Walker county Circuit court is to be held this week, a grand jury empanelled, indictments returned and, if possible, trial of those implicated in the lynching of William Baird last Thursday, begun next Monday, following the confession of Leslie West, in which he implicated National Guardsmen.

Judge Horace Wilkinson, special solicitor appointed by Governor Kilby, who arrived here this morning, is cooperating with Solicitor J. M. Pennington and Coroner A. B. Legg in the inquest. It was announced that the evidence is practically ready for presentation to the special grand jury and the formal trial can be begun immediately. Solicitor Wilkinson stated perhaps one of the men held in custody would be released and another arrest made. Several old coats and trousers were found near the point where Baird was shot, following the confession of West.

Jasper was very quiet this morning, although a large number of persons were gathered around the courthouse and on the principal streets.

A special grand jury was being empanelled at 11 o'clock this morning by Judge J. T. Sewell, of the Walker Circuit court, to investigate the lynching of Baird. Witnesses will be rushed to the Circuit court where they will testify before the special grand jury as rapidly as their testimony before the coroner's inquest, which was under way, is concluded.

Special Solicitors Wilkinson and Pennington held conferences with Judges Sewell and Curtis this morning, at which plans for the investigation were decided on.

Many Citizens to Attend Big Feeds

In addition to the visiting automobile dealers, many local citizens have received invitations to attend the big "feeds" to be given in honor of the Alabama Automobile Dealers' Association when the association meets here January 24.

The Malone Coal, Grain and Motor Company will entertain the visitors at a barbecue at noon in their showrooms on Second avenue, while the Albany Chamber of Commerce will be host to the dealers at a banquet in the chamber's auditorium the same night.

A BRILLIANT MAN PASSES AWAY

The death of C. Edward Albes, whose funeral services were held in Decatur yesterday afternoon, removes from our midst one of the most distinguished men of the state. His taking away is a distinct loss, not only to his many friends and to his native state, but to the entire nation. At the time he was stricken with his fatal illness he was Secretary of the Pan-American Union, with headquarters in Washington, D. C. Mr. Albes was charged by his organization, along with other able speakers and writers with the task of establishing larger and better relationships between the United States and the Republics of South America.

The last visit made by Mr. Albes to his home people was last summer, when he came from Washington especially to visit his life long friend, Mr. Vickroy who was at that time ill at the Benevolent Hospital. Some years prior to this he made an address before the Ladies' Culture Club, in which he spoke at length on his travels in South America, where he had made many visits, in the interests of better national and trade relations, between those countries and America. Those who had the privilege of hearing Mr. Albes at that time stated they had never heard a more attractive and exhaustive lecture on South America and its future possibilities. His hearers spoke of him as the most polished and intellectual man they had ever met.

Mr. Albes came naturally into his heritage of big ideas and broad sympathies. His father before him, Conrad Albes, was a land mark of this whole community; who proved his altruistic principles, especially in times of great distress. It is reliably reported that the elder Albes kept open house and gave free entertainment at his hotel then called the Bismark, when a scourge of fever visited this section some thirty years ago. The younger Albes succeeded his father in the hotel business, but his love of learning led him to take the law course at Vanderbilt University, after which he was duly admitted to the bar. But as writing and speaking appealed most strongly to him Mr. Albes gave little attention to the practice of his profession. He was at the height of his fame as a writer and lecturer when death came to him. It is a noble thing to think great thoughts, a nobler thing to pass them on to others, and a still nobler thing to translate thoughts into deeds.

Our distinguished fellow townsman did all three of these things in his own inimitable way, and with such recognized ability as to insure himself a lasting place in the nation's hall of fame for able and illustrious men. This newspaper wishes to extend its sincere sympathy to the sorrowing friends and the close relatives of the departed writer and diplomat.

WOMEN AS JURORS

It had to come sooner or later. When the Nineteenth Amendment was tacked onto the Constitution of the United States woman came into all of her rights—the right to serve on a jury included.

There always has been some discussion of the advisability of mixed juries.

Some there be who argue that the woman—though there be only one against eleven men good and true—would be the majority by virtue of her superior linguistic ability.

Others have stated in no uncertain terms that jury service under certain conditions would be more or less closely related to the Spanish inquisition. Consider the case of an eligible bachelor who found himself locked up in a jury room with eleven women of marriageable age and of undisputed determination.

As for a jury composed entirely of women it is simply unthinkable. What chance would a poor male defendant have if one of the jurors—or jurors, or jureesses—happened to be on speaking terms with or to have borrowed the powder puff of his mother-in-law?

The subject lends itself to wide discussion and any man who lays claim to "thoroughly understanding" the opposite sex will have little difficulty in finding material for debate in this fertile field. One of such seems to have discovered himself upon ascending to the bench of the Court of Special Sessions in New York.

Judge Alfred J. Talley, who has had long experience in the District Attorney's office, upon donning the judicial ermine separated himself from the following dicta appertaining to and touching upon the subject in hand:

Back of the whole question of women jurors, women voters, women legislators and women generally in public office looms one great and indisputable fact, and that is that woman approaches the problems of life with her heart and not with her head. The history of mankind gives testimony to the truth. It has been so held by sages and saints, and is known and accepted by every youth who has wooed a maid.

Legislation that is just and beneficial may give to woman right and privileges that have heretofore been denied her, but no written statute can transform what nature has wisely ordained.

Woman will continue to be a creature of infinite variety. Her delicate reserve always will be the very breath of moral life and the basis of her incomparable charm. So long as she is woman her emotional strain will dominate her rational processes and she will continue to be the inspiration of romance, poetry and art as long as civilization will endure.

It is not irrelevant to remark that Judge Talley will be a wiser man and a better judge of women—a month hence.—Nashville Tennessean.

A cable dispatch from Valparaiso, Chile, says that officials of the Nitrate Producers Association, representing 98 per cent of the production of the country, are much incensed over the charges of Representative Almon of Alabama, in the course of the debate on the Muscle Shoals Nitrate Plant, to the effect that the American farmer was "being robbed by the Chilean nitrate trust."

As bearing out the charge of Representative Almon that the American farmer is placed under heavy tribute for nitrate as fertilizer, it is a fact that the export duty on nitrate in Chile is 2 shillings 6 pence per 46 kilos, and this revenue furnishes more than 52 per cent of the whole revenue of the Republic of Chile.

Representative Almon charged that the export duties alone on nitrate from Chile had reached the huge total of $153,000,000 since 1879. When is added ocean freight, the profits of importers, and the profits of fertilizer factories working it up into the mixed fertilizers, it is seen that agriculture, and particularly Southern agriculture, which uses the bulk of commercial fertilizers has been under a staggering tribute to outsiders.

If the nitrate plants at Muscle Shoals can be got in operation, it is charged it will reduce the price of nitrate of soda or ammonium nitrate more than $30 a ton, and for this rich prize, a battle royal is being waged by those who control the importation of nitrates into this country and their distribution here.

Unfortunately these large interests, such as the powder trust, are high in the councils of the Republican party, and that party naturally does not want to do a thing which will interfere with such reliable and generous contributors to campaign funds. And to this the sneaking desire to punish the South, always existent in the breasts of some of the northern congressmen and a lack of understanding on the part of many other congressmen and a lack of understanding on the part of many other congressmen who come from the urban centers and do not know the importance to agriculture of the matter involved, and it makes it a hard combination to overcome.

It rather looks like the farmers of the nation when they voted the Republican ticket did not help themselves at all. In their anxiety to punish the Democrats they forgot that the Democrats had pushed this great project at Muscle Shoals almost to completion—and the Republicans would now "junk it" and utterly waste the money expended.—Birmingham News.

The hens lay for us, and so do our creditors, but there is quite a difference.

FIVE MEMBERS OF FAMILY ARE KILLED

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 17.—The coroner's jury investigating the killing of five members of the Bigham family, near Pamlico Saturday afternoon, will defer the rendering of a verdict for two weeks while collecting additional testimony, according to advices from Pamlico today. Temporarily insane from brooding over financial difficulties and embittered by family troubles in which an estate estimated at $75,000 was at stake, L. S. Bigham, according to the latest information, shot his mother, sister, the latter's two adopted children and later fired a bullet through his own brain. After slaying all in the house at the time it is thought Bigham went far into the woods surrounding the place and killed himself, where his body was found shortly after noon Sunday, his right hand still grasping the revolver.

The Bigham home is half a mile from the nearest neighboring house and no one heard the shots. At the inquest Edward Bigham, a brother, testified he had been away from the house only about 20 minutes. He had left his brother standing in the yard. He said his brother had been acting strangely several weeks but he did not appear to be any more depressed than usual.

Douglas Givens Invents New Disc

An official document sent out from Washington contains the following information of interest locally: "A new timing disc has been developed at Post Field by Lieutenant James Douglas Givens, A. S. Engineering Corps, for the Liberty motor. It is believed that this disc will become generally used in all air service stations. The feature that recommends it is that it can be used without removing the propeller and radiator. It is equally valuable in the shops as in the field and will be a great saving in time and labor. In addition to this, it is infinitely accurate. Photographs and drawings of each part are being made and forwarded to the engineering school at McCook Field, Kentucky Telegram.

The inventor is a nephew of Mrs. D. D. McGehee, of Decatur, and has a number of friends in the Twin Cities who will receive with much pleasure the news of his rapid advancement in his profession.

Look Out for Rheumatism As Winter Approaches

So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny disease germ that infests the blood, that physicians are beginning to realize that this source of the disease is becoming quite prevalent. Of course a disease that has its source in the blood cannot be reached by local remedies applied to the surface. One remedy that has given splendid results in the treatment of Rheumatism is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been sold by druggists for more than fifty years. S.S.S. acts by driving out of the blood the disease germ that causes Rheumatism, thus affording real relief. Begin taking S.S.S. today and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. COTTON MARKET OPENING STEADY

REPORTS ON DOMESTIC TEXTILE CONDITIONS CONTINUE BULLISH

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Trade and Liverpool interests bought enough at the opening of the cotton market today to hold it steady in the face of moderate selling by Wall street. The cables were rather poor but reports on textile conditions continued bullish, foreign exchange was strong and the South reported a better demand for the spot article, especially for low grades from domestic mills. The list was steady at the end of the first 20 minutes at a shade under Saturday's close.

Rig Builder On His Way Here to Rush Oil Project

Notice to Patrons of Albany Schools

We have begun the system of mid-year promotions which carries with it mid-year entrance to first grade. It was our hope that we would be able to care for a second class of children, six years of age, beginning in January, but we find that lack of space and teaching force forbids taking in so large a number. You must understand that this plan is of a local nature and not a state requirement. We have only 25 places distributed as follows: Gordon school, 8; Ward One, 5; Ward Two, 5; Ward Three, 7. We have decided to offer these places to those pupils who reached age six on or before November 30, 1920, provided the number of applicants does not exceed the number of places available. If the number of applicants exceeds the number of places, the children will be admitted in order of their ages, taking the older ones first. Applications for admission must be made before Friday, January 21, to the superintendent.

Respectfully,
R. W. COWART,
Superintendent.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

First Step in Treatment Is a Brisk Purgative With Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess calomel tablet called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time, with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Druggists sell Calotabs only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Your money will be cheerfully refunded if you do not find them delightful.—(Adv.)

Railroad Briefs About Town

J. L. Enoch, master mechanic for the Louisville and Nashville at Nashville, with his assistant were visitors at the shops Thursday. They were shown through the machine shop by Master Mechanic C. W. Matthews.

E. F. Rhinehart of the coach repair department is confined to his home in West Albany with a severe cold and some fever.

A. V. Surratt, brother of S. W. Surratt of the round house, was a recent visitor. Mr. Surratt now lives in Princeton, Ind. He will be recalled by baseball fans as "Rat," who was the crack third baseman of the shops team that once upon a time defeated the Birmingham Southern league. "Rat" is also the one who "knocked the ball into the river" when his team played a nearby Tennessee town.

Sam E. Roper, system chairman of the workmen's crafts of the Louisville and Nashville, is now in Chicago, where with other system chairmen he is sitting with the United States Wage Board now in session in that city.

The boilermakers' union held its regular meeting Friday night. This organization was recently visited by General Organizer Barksdale of the Boilermakers and Helpers.

F. A. Ramsey, tool room man for the round house, is now a patient in the Benevolent Hospital, where he has been for some time.

Obe Lee, round house machinist, is sick.

C. A. Dunnivant, who "converted" in a recent column of "Railroad Briefs" against the electric lights being turned on too late for working people on Sundays, has made a public statement to the effect that of late he, for one, is getting plenty of early Sunday morning light.

Said John K. Walsh: "The Bishop of Canterbury visited America and returned to England, while I was living there, and told an interesting story that he dared not tell in America at that time. His Grace said that he was visiting a prominent family in Philadelphia when one day after dinner the parents brought their little son of about five years in and told him that he was in the presence of a great man, and was asked to meet and salute the archbishop, to which suggestion the young American held out his hand and said in a friendly manner, 'Howdy do, Arch'."

Lucian Speer, a former carman but more recently of Birmingham, has returned to Albany and has taken employment with the street car company.

Ed. English of the wheel house, who has been quite ill for weeks, is now reported better.

T. R. McRae, an old employee of the car department, is away from his work on account of a painful boil on his arm.

There's Work to Be Done by Red-Blooded Men and Women with Strength and Energy

Do You Feel Fit for Your Job?

Pepto-Mangan Tones Up and Purifies the Blood of Busy Men and Over-tired Housewives

Take any man who works with his hands all day, every day, week in and week out. He uses up energy—lots of it. If he eats well and rests well his body renews its own energy. But there are days when he gets over-tired, he calls on his human engine to do more than it can. He strains. His blood gets thin. He feels weak and sluggish, maybe grouchy. He simply cannot get things done with his old-time vigor.

It is the same with women working around the house every day. Days come when they overdo. And they pay the price.

Brain workers go through the same thing except that they are more likely to suffer from impoverished blood because they usually work in stuffy offices.

So when you get run down from overwork and strain, it is a good thing to know about that wonderful tonic, Pepto-Mangan. Begin taking it as soon as you feel the least bit run down. It will supply your blood with the food it needs. You will get back into your stride and pick up again. You will go through your working days feeling fit and able to get things done, to achieve and get ahead. Thousands are doing it every day.

Pepto-Mangan is for sale at your druggist's in both liquid and tablet form. Take whichever you prefer. But to make sure you get the genuine, ask for "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" and see that the name "Gude's" is on the package.—Adv.

Telephone Rates To Advance Again

The telephone rates in the Twin Cities, along with other communities in the state, will go up again under a decision of the Public Service Commission issued late Friday. The application for an increase in telephone rates has been pending several weeks before the commission.

All Stars Dimmed By Austinville's Fast Basketeers

The Austinville high team met an Albany "all star" squad in a very thrilling game of basketball Saturday afternoon. The following score resulted: Albany 7, Austinville 48.

Albany had a picked team from the Y. M. C. A. and the high school. They played a quick, snappy game, but were no match for the fast Austinville team.

James Ryan proved to be all that Captain Briscoe could wish for. His goal pitching was the feature of the game, his record of goals being 30 points. Briscoe followed with 14 and Weaver 2. The guards played excellent ball, only two field goals being made off of them.

Albany's line-up was as follows: Carroll and Brown, forwards; Carr, center; with Thomas and Bradshaw, guards.

Good spirit prevailed throughout the game and the Albany boys were especially invited to visit Austinville again.

Edward Albes Is Laid to Rest Here

Edward Albes, for many years a prominent local resident, then editor-manager of the organ of the Pan-American Union, was laid to rest here Sunday afternoon. Services were in charge of the Knights of Pythias, of which Mr. Albes was a member. Hundreds of friends followed the body to its last resting place and many beautiful floral offerings attested the esteem in which he was held here.

While a graduate of the law department of Vanderbilt, Mr. Albes has been connected with the Pan-American Union at Washington many years and had made his home in the capital during that time.

It seemed like the good news of what Dreco was doing spread fast, for I kept hearing people talk about what it was doing until I decided to get a bottle also," said Mrs. Sallie C. Bragg of Newmarket, near Huntsville, Ala.

"I've suffered agonies from gastritis. My food soured in my stomach, filled me with gas, and caused griping pains and a choking feeling in my throat. My bowels were constipated so that I had to take medicine almost every night. I had been under treatment for kidney trouble for months—

Repair The Wear

Hard Work Often Breaks Down a Person's Health and Creates a Need for Ziron Iron Tonic.

MEN and women who do hard labor, such as building, farming or housekeeping, and those who do exhaustive brain work of various kinds, often feel the need of something to help renew faded forces and tone up the system.

To help repair the wear caused by over-work, to gain renewed strength and energy, many have obtained good results from taking Ziron Iron Tonic.

Ziron is a perfected preparation of pure medicinal iron salts, combined with other valuable strength-giving tonic ingredients, which are recommended by leading physicians.

Mr. H. B. Converse, of McEwen, Tenn., writes: "I had been working very hard, and was getting weak and run-down from hard work. When I commenced taking Ziron, in a few days I felt stronger, and now I have taken two bottles I feel as strong as ever, although I have kept at work all the time."

You cannot lose anything by giving Ziron a trial, but very likely will gain much.

Your druggist will sell you the first bottle on a money-back guarantee.

The death of C. Edward Albes, whose funeral services were held in Decatur yesterday afternoon, removes from our midst one of the most distinguished men of the state. His taking away is a distinct loss, not only to his many friends and to his native state, but to the entire nation. At the time he was stricken with his fatal illness he was Secretary of the Pan-American Union, with headquarters in Washington, D. C. Mr. Albes was charged by his organization, along with other able speakers and writers with the task of establishing larger and better relationships between the United States and the Republics of South America.

The last visit made by Mr. Albes to his home people was last summer, when he came from Washington especially to visit his life long friend, Mr. Vickroy who was at that time ill at the Benevolent Hospital. Some years prior to this he made an address before the Ladies' Culture club, in which he spoke at length on his travels in South America, where he had made many visits, in the interests of better national and trade relations, between those countries and America. Those who had the privilege of hearing Mr. Albes at that time stated they had never heard a more attractive and exhaustive lecture on South America and its future possibilities. His hearers spoke of him as the most polished and intellectual man they had ever met.

Mr. Albes came naturally into his heritage of big ideas and broad sympathies. His father before him, Conrad Albes, was a land mark of this whole community; who proved his altruistic principles, especially in times of great distress. It is reliably reported that the elder Albes kept open house and gave free entertainment at his hotel then called the Bismark, when a scourge of fever visited this section some thirty years ago. The younger Albes succeeded his father in the hotel business, but his love of learning led him to take the law course at Vanderbilt University, after which he was duly admitted to the bar. But as writing and speaking appealed most strongly to him Mr. Albes gave little attention to the practice of his profession. He was at the height of his fame as a writer and lecturer when death came to him. It is a noble thing to think great thoughts, a nobler thing to pass them on to others, and a still nobler thing to translate thoughts into deeds.

Our distinguished fellow townsman did all three of these things in his own inimitable way, and with such recognized ability as to insure himself a lasting place in the nation's hall of fame for able and illustrious men. This newspaper wishes to extend its sincere sympathy to the sorrowing friends and the close relatives of the departed writer and diplomat.

WOMEN AS JURORS

It had to come sooner or later. When the Nineteenth Amendment was tacked onto the Constitution of the United States woman came into all of her rights—the right to serve on a jury included.

There always has been some discussion of the advisability of mixed juries.

Some there be who argue that the woman—though there be only one against eleven men good and true—would be the majority by virtue of her superior linguistic ability.

Others have stated in no uncertain terms that jury service under certain conditions—would be more or less closely related to the Spanish inquisition. Consider the case of an eligible bachelor who found himself locked up in a jury room with eleven women of marriageable age and of undisputed determination.

As for a jury composed entirely of women it is simply unthinkable. What chance would a poor male defendant have if one of the jurors—or jurors, or jureesses—happened to be on speaking terms with or to have borrowed the powder puff of his mother-in-law?

The subject lends itself to wide discussion and any man who lays claim to "thoroughly understanding" the opposite sex will have little difficulty in finding material for debate in this fertile field. One of the things we have discovered in ourself upon ascending to the bench of the Court of Special Sessions in New York.

Judge Alfred J. Talley, who has had long experience in the District Attorney's office, upon donning the judicial ermine separated himself from the following dicta appertaining to and touching upon the subject in hand:

Back of the whole question of women jurors, women voters, women legislators and women generally in public office looms one great and indisputable fact, and that is that woman approaches the problems of life with her heart and not with her head. The history of mankind gives testimony to the truth. It has been so held by sages and saints, and is known and accepted by every youth who has wooed a maid.

Legislation that is just and beneficent may give to woman right and privileges that have heretofore been denied her, but no written statute can transform what nature has wisely ordained.

Woman will continue to be a creature of infinite variety. Her delicate reserve always will be the very breath of moral life and the basis of her incomparable charm. So long as she is woman her emotional strain will dominate her rational processes and she will continue to be the inspiration of romance, poetry and art as long as civilization will endure.

It is not irrelevant to remark that Judge Talley will be a wiser man and a better judge of women—a month hence.—Nashville Tennessean.

A cable dispatch from Valpariso, Chile, says that officials of the Nitrate Producers Association, representing 98 per cent of the production of the country, are much incensed over the charges of Representative Almon of Alabama, in the course of the debate on the Muscle Shoals Nitrate Plant, to the effect that the American farmer was "being robbed by the Chilean nitrate trust."

As bearing out the charge of Representative Almon that the American farmer is placed under heavy tribute for nitrate as fertilizer, it is a fact that the export duty on nitrate in Chile is 2 shillings 6 pence per 46 kilos, and this revenue furnishes more than 52 per cent of the whole revenue of the Republic of Chile.

Representative Almon charged that the export duties alone on nitrate from Chile had reached the huge total of $153,000,000 since 1879. When is added ocean freight, the profits of importers, and the profits of fertilizer factories working it up into the mixed fertilizers, it is seen that agriculture, and particularly Southern agriculture, which uses the bulk of commercial fertilizers has been under a staggering tribute to outsiders.

If the nitrate plants at Muscle Shoals can be got in operation, it is charged it will reduce the price of nitrate of soda or ammonium nitrate more than $30 a ton, and for this rich prize, a battle royal is being waged by those who control the importation of nitrates into this country and their distribution here.

Unfortunately these large interests, such as the powder trust, are high in the councils of the Republican party, and that party naturally does not want to do a thing which will interfere with such reliable and generous contributors to campaign funds. And to this the sneaking desire to punish the South, always existent in the breasts of some of the northern congressmen and a lack of understanding on the part of many other congressmen and a lack of understanding on the part of many other congressmen who come from the urban centers and do not know the importance to agriculture of the matter involved, and it makes it a hard combination to overcome.

It rather looks like the farmers of the nation when they voted the Republican ticket did not help themselves at all. In their anxiety to punish the Democrats they forgot that the Democrats had pushed this great project at Muscle Shoals almost to completion—and the Republicans would now "junk it" and utterly waste the money expended.—Birmingham News.

The hens lay for us, and so do our creditors, but there is quite a difference.

Senator Harding will retire from the Senate Saturday. Now, if he were only to be rid of it he might be a happy President.

(International News Service)
COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 17.—The coroner's jury investigating the killing of five members of the Bigham family, near Pamlico Saturday afternoon, will defer the rendering of a verdict for two weeks while collecting additional testimony, according to advices from Pamlico today. Temporarily insane from brooding over financial difficulties and embittered by family troubles in which an estate estimated at $75,000 was at stake, L. S. Bigham, according to the latest information, shot his mother, sister, the latter's two adopted children and later fired a bullet through his own brain. After slaying all in the house at the time it is thought Bigham went far into the woods surrounding the place and killed himself, where his body was found shortly after noon Sunday, his right hand still grasping the revolver.

The Bigham home is half a mile from the nearest neighboring house and no one heard the shots. At the inquest Edward Bigham, a brother, testified he had been away from the house only about 20 minutes. He had left his brother standing in the yard. He said his brother had been acting strangely several weeks but he did not appear to be any more depressed than usual.

She gave good advice to loved ones and was triumphant in death. The family have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

Funeral services will be held at Basham's chapel Tuesday at 4 o'clock, Rev. Nathan Moore, of Neil, officiating. She is survived by an aged father, James Means, a brother, Drew Means, her husband and a son, Walter; four daughters, Mrs. Vandy Rollins, Misses Lizzie, Clara and Myrtle Roberts.

Douglas Givens Invents New Disc

An official document sent out from Washington contains the following information of interest locally: "A new timing disc has been developed at Post Field by Lieutenant James Douglas Givens, A. S. Engineering Corps, for the Liberty motor. It is believed that this disc will become generally used in all air service stations. The feature that recommends it is that it can be used without removing the propeller and radiator. It is equally valuable in the shops as in the field and will be a great saving in time and labor. In addition to this, it is infinitely accurate. Photographs and drawings of each part are being made and forwarded to the engineering school at McCook Field." Kentucky Telegram.

The inventor is a nephew of Mrs. D. D. McGehee, of Decatur, and has a number of friends in the Twin Cities who will receive with much pleasure the news of his rapid advancement in his profession.

So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny disease germ that infects the blood, that physicians are beginning to realize that this source of the disease is becoming quite prevalent. Of course a disease that has its source in the blood cannot be reached by local remedies applied to the surface.

One remedy that has given splendid results in the treatment of Rheumatism is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been sold by druggists for more than fifty years. S.S.S. acts by driving out of the blood the disease germ that causes Rheumatism, thus affording real relief.

First Step in Treatment is a Brisk Purgative With Calomel, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have, found by experience that no medicine for colds and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess calomel tablet called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR
MRS. OTTO OWENS

Friday afternoon the young ladies of the Bible class of the First Christian church, delightfully surprised Mrs. Otto Owens, a recent bride, with a miscellaneous shower. The crowd, which met at one of the local drug stores, proceeded in a body to the home of Mrs. J. Wiley Owens, on Prospect drive. During the afternoon a musical program was rendered and light refreshments served. The many useful and beautiful gifts received attested to the love and esteem in which the popular bride is held.

MUSIC STUDY CLUB

The Junior Music Study Club met Saturday afternoon with Misses Louise Neill and Ruth Mathews at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Neill on Jackson street. The meeting was very enthusiastic with an attendance of over 30 members. The discussion of American composers was treated by club members as round table. Instrumental solos were contributed by Misses Kate Frazier, Katherine Chunn Louise Neill, Genie Chenault, Louise Almon and Gladys Bernardi. Miss Dudley gave a short talk on parliamentary ruling which proved most interesting. Adjournment followed and the hostess served light refreshments. This club will meet Saturday, February 5, with Misses Mildred Moebs and Myrtle Graves.

Mrs. Bradley Bibb of Belle Mina is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Zeno Bailey.

The Tollefsen Trio

The Tollefsen Trio, in concert at the Masonic Friday night, January 21, is the biggest musical attraction of this or any previous season in the Twin Cities. Each member of the trio is a celebrated artist, and capable of giving a concert well worth the price; and taken as an ensemble, the offering is a rare treat. This Trio seldom plays except in large cities. It is the second attraction of the season under the auspices of the Music Study Club, Mrs. W. K. McNeill and J. A. Miller. Tickets go on sale at office of J. A. Miller Wednesday morning, January 19.

All those holding season tickets are required to make new reservations. We find there is no other satisfactory way to handle it. Make reservations early. Prices for tickets: Balcony, $1, main floor $1.50, and war tax. Telephone Albany 244. Adv.

Oh! My, but what a good natured crowd. All day long we were just as busy as could be.

Up one side and down the other could be heard: Hello Mrs. Smith—Good Morning Mrs. Jones—did you ever see good things sell so cheap—come this way please—I'll take that—give me three of them—Gee! I'm glad I came. Such remarks were heard all over the store. They came and they saw, they bought—and simply there was a real good reason.
